HIS BRIDE MISS FLORENCE GARNER,

Tory Press Causes a Sensation.

LONDON, June 10.—Sir William Gordon-Cumming was married at 10 o'clock this morning in the fashionable Holy Trinity Church, at Elsea, to Miss Florence Garner, daughter of the late Commodore William Garner of New York City. Lord Thurlow gave the bride away. Maj. Vessy Dawson of the Coldstream Guards was the best man. The Rev. Robert Eyton officiated. The marriage was practically a secret marriage. Only twelve people were present at the ceremonies at Holy Trinity. The bride looked charmingly happy, and Sir William was proud-looking, cool and entirely self-possessed. There was no trace in his per-proud-looking, cool and entirely selfpossessed. There was no trace in his personal appearance of depression or emotion resulting from yesterday,'s verdict in the Court of Queen's bench. Lady and Sir William Gordon Cumming left this city shortly after the ceremony for the bridegroom's estate, Altyre, near Forrest, in Scotland, where they will spend the honeymoon.

POPULAR OPINION.

In an interview to-day Sir Wm. GordonCumming said that he had nothing to add to what he had said in the witness box. The popular opinion over the verdict, he added,
was shown by the demonstrations in court.
Sir William refused to say anything in regard to the comments of the newspapers upon the case just decided, saying that the new spapers were at perfect liberty to say what they pleased. When the verdict was pronounced against him Sir William GordonCumming again offered to cancel his engagepronounced against him Sir William Gordon-Cumming again offered to cancel his engage-ment to Miss Garner, but the lady believing n his innocence would not hear of such a thing, and insisted that the marriage should take place to-day. It is expected that Sir William and his wife will visit the United States in the autumn. Lady Gordon Cum-ming is the eldest daughter of the late Com-modore William Garner of New York, who was drowned in July, 1876, with his wife, through the capsizing of Mr. Garner's yacht Mohawk.

FRIENDS OF CUMMING NOW CLAIM THAT THE JURY WAS PACKED.

LONDON, June 10.—Friends of Sir William Gordon-Cumming now claim that the jury was packed and that, so far as the defense being surprised at the questions which the juryman addressed to the Prince of Wales, the questions were expected and arranged in juryman addressed to the Prince of Wales, the questions were expected and arranged in advance and in order to give the Prince a pretext for declaring his belief in Cumming's guilt. A juryman has admitted that the case was settled against the plaintiff by the evidence of the Prince, especially the answer of the inter declaring that he had found it impossible to discredit the evidence against cumming. It is said that all the jurymen are conservative in political faith. A singular occurrence to which attention has been called is that the most iamous of English trials before that just concluded, incalled is that the most famous of English trials before that just concluded, involving the question of cheating at cards, was a little over fifty years ago, and a Mr. Cumming was a defendant. Cumming in that case charged Lord Delkoss with cheating. His Lordship sued Cumming for damages and the jury, as in the recent case, gave a verdict for the defendant, substantially affirming the truth of the charge. Lady Middleton, sister of Sir William, is said to be seriously affected by the verdict, and unable to leave affected by the verdict, and unable to leave her a partments. Her husband, Lord Middle-ton, who is devoted to his wife, and has been an earnest champion of her brother, is also much broken down. It is said to be the first stain on the Cummings in all their history, and the Middletons are one of the proudest families in all England, being descended from a Lord Chief Justice of Henry VIII. It is ru-mored that Queen Victoria sense a message of mored that Queen Victoria sent a message of congratulation to the Wilsons through the Prince of Wales, but this cannot be con-

DENUNCIATION OF THE PRINCE OF WALES BY

THE TORT NEWSPAPERS.

LONDON, June 10.—Echoes of the baccarat scandal suit still fill the air. The Solicitor-LONDON, June 10.—Echoes of the baccarnt scandal suit still fill the air. The Solicitor-General, Sir Edward Clarke, who so wisely argued the case on Monday, is ill and thoroughly exhausted to-day. He has entirely lost the use of his voice and is obliged to retire from any cases in which he was retained for to-day. The denunciation of the Prince of Wales by the newspaper press, and especially his denunciation by the Tory press, has caused a tremendous sensation throughout Great Britain, and it is freely asserted that the revelations made during the trial of the baccarat scandal suit in court are judged to have done more to imperil the monarchy than any event which has taken place for many years past in England. The first assertion made by the Daily Chronick to the effect that the Prince of Wales, on oath, swears as "his confederates" did, that he, the Prince, did not violate the solemn pledge he gave to Sir William Gordon-Cumming, he, the hefr-apparent, rests under an imputation of dishonor quite as shameful as that which the jury put upon Sir William Gordon-Cumming, reflects the general feeling on the subject.

A precis of the court proceedings was telegraphed each night to the Queen, who is now at Balmoral Castle in Scotland, and her Majesty is said to have expressed her displeasure in such strong terms that Trash of this city asserts that it would not be a surprise if the Court of Queen's Bench revelations were the cause of the Earl of Coventry's resigning his office as Master of Her Majesty's Buckhounds or Chief of the Royal Hunt of Her Majesty's household, for which office the Earl draws an annual anlary of 5,500.

The Queen does not attempt to conceal the fact that she is angry with everyone connected with the baccarat scandal and the effects may yet be felt in several quarters.

At Ascot yesterday the Prince of Wales was visibly nervous until after he received the dispatch announcing the Wilsons' victory. So soon as he was in possession of the result of the jury's deliberations, the Prince fairly beamed upon his friends and relatives, taking he pains to conceal the pleasure he felt at the result of the verdict.

The Star to-day, under the heading of "Royalty at the Stake," says that the Prince of Wales is the male head of his race. The women of his house are virtuous, salf-restrained and reliant. The English people throughout the world want the men to be more like the women of this royal line, adding:

THE FRIMITIVE METHODIST CONFERENCE.
The proceedings of the Primitive Methodist Conference, now in session at the Northampton, assumed an exciting character today when the matter of the connection of the Prince of Wales with the baccarat scandal came up for discussion. Some of the speakers went so far as to urge that the Prince should not be allowed to succeed to the throne unless he at once abandoned gambling. The speeches were received with applause. An understanding was had that the conference would to-morrow proceed to the consideration of the resolutions to be adopted on the subject.

CHARGES AGAINST SIR WM. GORDON-CUMMING LEADING TO THE LIBEL SUIT.

The story of the famous baccarat scandal is briefly as follows: During the Doncaster September meeting Mrs. Arthur Wilson, the wife of the well-known millionaire of London. wife of the well-known millionaire of London, invited the Prince of Wales with a party of his friends to be her guests at her Doncaster residence during the progress of the races. The invitation was accepted, and among those who accompanied the Prince in his visit was the plaintiff in the present case, Sir William Gordon-Cumming, the particular friend of the heir apparent to the British throne, a Lieutenant-Colonel of the Scot Guards and the gentieman who is engaged, it is said, to a the beir apparent to the British throne, a Lieutenant-Colonel of the Scot Guards and the gentleman who is engaged, it is said, to a daughter of the late William Garner of New York. It was the fashion for the distinguished party housed in Mrs. Wilson's elegant residence to amuse themselves in the evening after the races with play, baccarat being, as a game, the prime favorite. It came to pass in the fullness of time that intimations were made that certain bets had or had not been made. Later on certain of the party became quite positive that there was a painful lack of regularity in that respect and that the distinguished Guardsman was the particular, indeed, only offender.

The Prince of Wales immediately insisted that an investigation should be had. The investigation which followed was conducted by Lord Coventry and Gen. Owen Williams, and as a result it was found that Sir William Gordon-Cumming's plight was such as to suggest that mercy to that gentleman would be best exercised by dropping further inquiry. The Prince of Wales thereupon exacted a promise from the plaintiff that he should in future abstain from playing cards, This, however, did not close the incident, for, as the result of a quarrel among a number of aristocratic ladies, the whole matter leaked out, and Sir William Gordon was promptly conducted to the plilory where he has since remained in much anguish of mind. Finally the siander assumed such dimensions that the Baronet felt compelled to bring the action for libel sumed such dimensions that the Baronet felt compelled to bring the action for libel against his alleged traducers, among whom are Gen. The trial of the action for libel against Sir Wm. Gordon's alleged traducers opened on Monday, June 1, and lasted until June 9, when the Jury returned the verdict, as above stated, against the plaintiff. The Baronet was the only witness for the plaintiff, while for the defense His Boyai Highness, the Prince of Wales, heir apparent to the British throne, Gen. Owen Williams, Lord Coventry, Mr. Lycett Green, Arthur Wilson Stanley and his mother Mrs. Arthur Wilson, the hostess who entertained the famous baccarat party at her country house, Tranby Croft, were the principal witnesses. Sir Charles Russell, the distinguished and able barrister, was chief counsel for the defendants, and Solictor-General Sir Edward Clarke, no less able and distinguished, appeared for the plaintiff.

Hess' drug store, which is in the building known as the Commercial Hotel block. The entire block was quickly burned, together with its contents. Scarcely anything was saved. The fire caught some frame buildings just east of where it originated and in a few moments laid them in ashes. Dr. Hess' loss is about $7,000; insured for $2,900. L. W. Danforth's loss on store and building is $11,000, with a very small insurance. Louis Rosenwater, proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, lost everything in the line of household and kitchen furniture. County Clerk Bridges and family and County Collector Oglivie and family, who were guests of the hotel, lost all of their effects. O. W. Andrews' loss on grocary stock is $200; A. H. Danforth's loss on two frame buildings, $700. Other losses will make the total about $22,000. The cause of the fire is surrounded in mystery.

It will be remembered that her husband, ex-King Milan, who enjoys a pretty bad reputation, abdicated the throne of Servia. It is understood that Milan and ex-Queen Natalle were not to live in Servia until their young son, the young King Alexander, now it years old, shall have attained his majority. Milan consented to this arrangement upon the payment of a round sum of money. But the Queen refused even after the Governmental majority in the Skuptschina, or national chamber had ordered her to leave the country. THE TROUBLE IN HATTI.

ENT HIPPOLYTE'S ORGAN ON THE CON DUCT OF THE POREIGN CONSULS. NEW YORK, June 10.—L'Ordrea, a Port-Au-Prince paper, entirely devoted to the Gov-ernment of Gen. Hippolyte, publishes in its number of May 80 a rather threatening paragraph in regard to the conduct of the foreign Consuls since the recent bloody occurrences in the Haytian capital. It is usual in suchicir-cumstances for the defeated belilgerents to find a refuge in the consulates, which enjoy in Hayti and in the Spanish-American counin Hayti and in the Spanish-American contries the ancient "right of asylum," recognized in the middle ages as belonging to church buildings. It appears that the soldiers of Gen. Hippolyte have not respected that right, and that they have forcibly taken from the Dominican and other consulates at Port-An-Prince political refugees, who were shot immediately. The paper, L'Ordrea, without aliuding to these executions or to the violation of consular residences, speaks as follows:

without author to these excutous of to the violation of consular residences, speaks as follows:

There are people who imagine that they are nate because they are in the consulates. Very good, but have is it that person the consulates. Very good, but have is it that person the consulates are the fight of their accomplices? What is a right of their accomplices? What is a right of the consulates a kind of fortress from which people can sally ferth when they expect to win and to which they return as soon as they have lost the fight?

And L'Ordres adds:

That will make the subject of another article.

It is evident that this promised article will be an armignment of the asylum privilege enjoyed by the consulates which was so useful in mitigating the horrors attending the frequent revolutions and especially in Hayti. In case the Government of Hippolyte should dare to deny the consular privilege of asylum which was always recognized, the foreign powers of Europe and America cannot fail to unite and to assert by an ultimatum of an international character the right of their consuls to protect political refugees.

letter-box—a box into which the carrier can deposit the mail he has for the house without waiting until his ring or knock at the door is answered. About 1,000 devices have been received from the inventors of the country from which the selection is to be made.

Postmaster-General Wanamaker and Maj.
Pollock; the Superintendent of the Free De-Pollock, the Superintendent of the Free De-livery Service, are both in favor of the pro-posed letter-box system. Maj. Pollock says that a third of the time of letter-carriers is spent in waiting at the doors of houses. The intention is to put up the boxes at the cost of

A PREACHER COUNTERFEITER.
CHESTER, Ill., June 19.—George W. Vancil, one of the preachers convicted of passing apurious money, was received at the penitentiary here yesterday and assigned to work on the farm. Vancil claims that he was led astray by Rev. Jerry Holmes. Holmes is still at Springfield in jail but will be brought here in a few days.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 10.—Judge Dubose of the Criminal Court is still sick, and it may be that Probate Judge Galloway will sit during the remainder of the trial of H. Clay King, charged with murder. The opinion is almost general that King will be convicted but few York, are homored by appointment on all of these committees. Many important results

Retail Druggists Who Cut Rates Cannot

THE JOBBERS JOIN HANDS WITH THE RETAILERS' ASSOCIATION.

Dry Goods Stores Can No Longer Handle Applied to Hold Up Prices in Patent Medicines-The Boycott National-May Reach the Courts.

There is a drug boycott in progress in St. Louis. It was inaugurated just one week ago to-day, and since that time no local re-Louis. It was inaugurated just one week ago to-day, and since that time no local retail druggists who is not a member of the Retail Druggists' Association has been able to purchase supplies of any kind from any of the wholesale houses here. The wholesale houses here. The wholesale houses have gone into the boycott at the request of the retailers' association, the action being taken by the latter in hopes of forcing the retailers who are not in the association to enter their organization and join with them in holding up the prices on patent medicines. It is the cutting of prices on this class of goods that has brought on the boycott. The Association druggists have pledged themselves not to sell patent or proprietary medicines below the rates printed on the goods. The non-Association druggists have been cutting the prices, and so have some dry goods stores who have been handling patent medicines, perfumeries, soaps, brushes, combs and druggists' sundries in general. The retailers have also got the wholesale drug houses to pledge themselves not to sell to any of these dry goods stores or to any concerns at all not doing exclusively a retail drug business. Resides the retail dry goods stores there are five retail druggists affected by the boycott. They are Judge & Bolph at Fourth and Market streets, A. H. Coussens of the Anti-Monopoly drug store at Sixth and Market streets, Raboteau & Co., 714 North Broadway; Henry Fuller, northeast corner Twenty-third street and Clark avenue, and B. Bribach, 7601 Michigan avenue, Carondelet.

The Retailers' Association has employed detectives to watch the wholesale houses to detectives to watch the wholesale houses to see that they do not violate their agreement not to sell to any of the boycotted parties, and learn whether they are getting any drugs, and if so, from whom they get them. The association druggists think the boycotted firms will get their supplies through some other party, and if any person is detected aiding them to procure goods that party will be boycotted also, unless he immediately desist. There are similar boycotts in all the cities in the country, the Wholesale Druggists' Association of the United States, which includes every large jobber in the country, having agreed to stand by the retail druggists' associations in all cities in their country, having agreed to stand by the retain druggists' associations in all cities in their fight against the cutting of prices. This being the case, the boycotted druggists cannot get their supplies from any wholesale house in any other city. Some of the patent medicine houses are also in the movement and there are members of the local association, who aver that it is the patent medicine manufacturers who have caused the boycott. They claim that the patent medicine concerns were displeased at the way their rates were cut, demoralizing their business, and refused to let the jobbers hundle their goods unless they would agree not to sell to any retailers or other parties who would cut rates. The retailers who charge that this is the foundation of the trouble admit that they have been endeavoring for some time on their own account to hold up the prices on their goods, alleging that there was practically no profit in hand-line than at the cut rates.

who would cut rates. The retailers who we will cut rates. The retailers who would cut rates. The retailers who was accounted to the cut rates.

A WENGE THE ACCOUNT THE ACCOUN wholesale houses to cut us off. It is the same fight that is going on in other cities. I think there will be some fun in a couple of weeks, though I cannot speak of it now."

WHOLESALE DEALER'S STATEMENT. Mr. Wall, financial manager of the Meyer Bros. Drug Co., when seen admitted that the boycott was on and said it was not confined to this city, but to the whole country. The Kational Wholesale Druggists' Association had agreed to stand by the retailers in the matter and endeavor to prevent the cutting of rates. In addition to the wholesalers' National Association agreeing to do this, the jobbers of the various cities had also agreed to stand by the retailers of the respective places and the boycotted firms here could not buy supplies anywhere in the country. The trouble was all in the cutting of patent medicines by dry goods stores and non-association druggists. By merely cutting of patent medicines by dry goods stores and non-association druggists. By merely cutting of prices be stopped. With the wholesale houses here it was a question of having all the drug trade of the dity, except that of the five non-association druggists here, go to another city or losing the trade of the few concerns who were cutting prices and retaining that of all the other drug stores. The wholesale firms all agreed of course to take the latter end of the dilemma and to sell no more to those who cut prices. Mr. Wall said he supposed that the cut-off druggists intended bringing action in the courts against the prisoners, and accordingly released them. Glad enough the men were to wet away by promising to beave their away by promising to be averous the them. They placed their property in Gamblers Arrested in an Allerton House Room Last Night.

EAST ST. LOUIS DETECTIVES "BUCK THE TIGER" IN EARNEST.

Eph Eddy of St. Louis, Three Other Gamblers and a Faro "Lay Out" Taken in Charge-A Hotal Porter Hoodwinked and a Swell "Carriage Party" [Broke

Chief Walsh's men made a raid onja far Four men were arrested and a the prisoners and the property were released. Several times during the past year Chief Walsh has had reports of gambling going on at the Allerton House, at the National Stock Yards, but as there was no evidence to show that the games were other than private "draw" parties, and as the hotel is not in the city limits, no action was

THE RAID DECIDED UPON THE RAID DECIDED UPON.

Yesterday morning he gained direct information that fare was being played nightly at the Allerton House and having personal knowledge, of the desire of a certain well-known St. Louis gambler to start a game on the East side he at once surmised that this man had moved his layout across the river. The man alluded to had approached him several times and endeavored to get assurances that the East St. Louis proached him several times and endeavored to get assurances that the East St. Louis police would not go beyond their jurisdiction to disturb a game at the Allerton House, but he declined to make any promises. To confirm his suspicions his men reported to him that the layout in use at the Allerton House was an exceptionally fine one. The gambler who had previously approached him was known to be the owner of paraphernalia of finest make. Last night he detailed Detectives Joe Kinney and Dennis Ryan to raid the game, break it up and arrest the players. His orders were carried out as far as possible. The officers got into the gambling-room before the game had com-

CAPTURED MEN AND LATOUT.

The detectives promptly arrested the quartette and took charge of the paraphernalia, but afterwards came to the conclusion that they could not make a casa against the prisoners, and accordingly released them. Glad enough the men were to get away by promising to leave the State and take their layout with them. They placed their property in the carriages and drove across the river. Chief Walsh said to-day that he would prosecute the men who run the hotel on the charge of renting premises for gambling purposes.

THE applause which greeted the Prince of Wales when he appeared at the Ascot races must have come from the bookmakers and touts. His popularity with the professional gamblers doubtless has greatly increased since it has been shown that he is one of them.

THE last Treasury statement gave such a wretched little "net" balance to the credit of the Government that the President is said to have ordered a change to be made in future statements so that the net balance will not be made known. THE TRIAL'S SEQUEL.

Unless an explanation is suggested by his marriage to an American heiress the day after the baccarat case went against him it is difficult to imagine what Sir WILLIAM GORDON-CUMMING expected to gain by prosecuting his accusers for libel. The evidence against him was so conclusive that the jury could not avoid sustaining his accusers and sending him out into the world judicially convicted and branded as a cheat at cards. The prosecution enabled his accusers to testify as unimpeached witnesses that they saw him repeatedly and furtively inc rease his bets after the progress of the game insured his winthat instead of confronting his a ccusers on the spot, he had undertaken to hide his shame by signing what was equivalent to confession of his guilt. In rebuttal of al this evidence against him he produced nothing but his own denial. Even that was coupled with an admission that the witnesses against him were animated by no improper motive, and that he thought them honestly mistaken. But he adduced no evidence to show that they were mistaken. Their conclusive testimony against him went to the jury not only unshaken but corroborated by the fatal document he had signed to secure their silence. The plea that he had signed it to save the reputation of the Prince of Wales at the sacrifice of his own honor, could never have

MARRIAGE OF MISS LOUISE WHITTE-MORE TO HARRY G. KNAPP.

Miss Jennie Lynch Wedded to Mr. Geo. M. Willing and Miss Laura P. Kalb to a Minneapolis Gentleman-Miss Delia

Among the leading social events of to-day is the marriage of Miss Louise Whittemore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whittemore of Grand avenue, to Mr. Harry G. Knapp. The groom is the son of the late Col. George Knapp of the old Republican. The marriage will take place this evening at the handsome home of the bride's parents, Rev. Dr. Montgomery schuyler of Christ Church Cathedral performing the ceremony. The marriage will take place a little before 8 o'clock, at which hour the guests have been invited and will be witnessed only by the immediate family and con-

The groom's bestman will be Mr. Charles Whittemore, brother of the bride. The bride will wear a gown of white crepe de chine made severely simple, en train, with decollette corsage and garniture of orange blossoms, also a wreath of the same flower to fasten the tulle veil. Mr. and Mrs. Knapp will dispense with the usual wedding trip will dispense with the usual wedding trip will dispense with the usual wedding trip and go at once to their handsome residence, No. 460 Lindell avenue. AN INCREASE IN THE TAXES.

Bills Under a New Rate New Being Mad

sor O'Brien's force of deputies wil begin next week making out tax bills under the new tax ordinance for the year 1891. The the new tax ordinance for the year 1891. The issuance of the new tax bills will probably cause a howl to go out from tax-payers effected by the ordinance. These comprise all the owners of property within the new limits, as it is called. That is that section of the city between the old city limits, a little beyond Grand avenue, and the present city limits. The new section will be taxed this year the same as the old. Owners of property in the extreme limits will have to pay as much taxes in proportion to its value as property owners on Broadway, Olive street or Washington avenue. The increase is 60 cents on $100. The rate in the new section this year is $2.20 on $100 to $1.60 on $100 last year. The only exceptions are two strips in the extreme northern and southern portions of the city. In the Twenty-sixth Ward in North St. Louis and in the Twenty-seventh Ward in South St. Louis there are 248 blocks, owned by about 1,000 tax-payers, which secret the largeties. The treasure in seventh Ward in South St. Louis there are 248 blocks, owned by about 1,000 tax-payers, which escape the big raise. The increase in those sections is only 20 cents on $100, that is, the rate is $1.50 on $100.

The Collector's office is expecting a stormy time when the bills are placed for collection which will be about Aug. 1. The new tax ordinance was passed by the Municipal Assembly near the dose of the Max session in such a quiet ordinance was passed by the Municipal Assembly near the dose of the May session in such a quiet manner that the tax-payers received no word of what was being dote. The bill was called simply "tax ordinancs," the title giving no intimation of the nature of the measure. When, therefore, the owner of a $20,000 suburban cottage read in the minutes of the Council the passage of a "tax ordinance" he was not aware that it increased his taxes very considerably.

ALUMAE BANQUET.

Gen. John McNeil to Be Interred With Thereis a very touching and sad coincidence connected with the death of Gen. John Mc-Neil. He was an active and regular member of Blair Post, G. A. R. and had as long as could be remembered attended the regular Monday meetings of the post. Rain or shine Gen. McNell was always found in his sion and vases of liles and bunches of daises and roses—roses of every hue and color, sometimes a hundred in a bunch—all of them offerings to the graduates from their numerous friends. Five courses were served, beginning with bouillon, then croquettes and place on Monday night. A couple of weeks ago his comrades in the post resolved to give him a testimonial, expressing their esteem and recognizing his value as beginning with bouillon, then croquettes and green peas, salads, ice cream and strawberries and cake. The gymnasium was wainscoated with green and grouped with palms for this occasion, and hidden away was an orchestra which rendered a choice programme of music. After the banquet, Mrs. Herf, the president, delivered an address, and this was followed by a couple of toasts and responses as follows:

Maj. Murphy has prepared a comparative statement of prices for stock supplies of mac-adam and for annual contracts on other work

For the three districts, repairing alleys, gutters, curbs and cross walks, the contract price has amounted to $47,918. The prices yesterday show a total of $42,748, showing a saving of about $5,000.

The successful bidders were W. H. Barnett, H. Rueekling & Co., John B. O'Meara, M. A. Hogan, G. Eyermann, Jr., Fruin Bambrick Construction Co., Krug & Zesch, E. C. Williams, Pacific Red Gravel Co., Union Red & Gray Gravel Co., Chas. Neumister, James Farreil Jr., Thos. H. Clayven, Frank Keating and Henry Ruckert.

It can be seen that a decided decrease has been obtained all through.

The Mayor, according to the tales of the subordinates in his office, has been there every day since Friday. If he has he must have come and departed in an air ship, and ego his comrades in the post resolved to give him a testimonial, expressing their estems and recognizing his value as a member. A handsome gold medal was purchased and duly inscribed and arrangements were completed to rea present ation at the next meeting of the post. The members were all notified to make it their special duty to attend on this occasion and it was to be made an event in the history of the post. The presentation was to have been made at 8 o'clock last weening and at 5:36 Gen. McNeil died.

The medal will be placed upon his breast beside his other decorations and will be buried with him.

The funeral will take place on Friday next from his late residence, 777 Russell avenue, west take of Largartte Fark, at 1 o'clock sharp Friday afternoon. The march will be made from the residence on Russell avenue, west to Grand, and north to Easton avenue, where the parade proper will be disbanded. The corjege will proceed to Bellefontaine cemetery, accompanied by the honorary palbearers, consisting of one comrade iron each Grand Army post.

Argenta of the Goodwood stables will start in the second race to-day, but Gus Gentry, the stable's jockey, will not ride him. Allen will have the mount instead. This is bewill have the mount instead, This is because Gentry has been set down for the meeting by Starter Ferguson for refusing to obey instructions. When the horses were at the post Monday in the Debutante Stakes for 2 year-olds the Debutante Stakes for 2 year-olds Gentry had the mount on Inez. His instructions were to keep well to the front at the post, so that he would not be left when the start was made. He did so, and when Starter Ferguson ordered him to go back to the rear Gentry would not obey, and after the race was set down by the starter for the balance of the meeting. Efforts are being made to have him reinstated.

To-morrow the first stake of the meeting for 3-year-olds and upwards, will be decided. It is the Ozark, one mile and a quarter, and closed with sixty-two entries. Among them are Bobby Beach, Roseland, Monita Hardy, Kitty Cheatham, Stoney Montgomery, Dollkens, Shibbobeth, Vallera, Long Shore, Fayette, John Sherman, Col. Whertley, Noretta, Edna A., Comedy, Ethel Gray, Carter B., Faithful, Lord Coleridge, Lucille Manette, Bettie Seldon, Virge D'Or, Robespierre and Kehama. Of course only a few of these will start, but there will probably be enough good ones go to the post to make it one of the best races of the meeting. The other events for to-morrow are a selling purse of a mile and seventy yards, a race of four and a half furlongs for 2 year-olds, a mile race and a handicap sweepstakes of one mile and an eighth. the meeting, for on that day will be decided the Great Western Stakes, a sweepstakes for 2-year-olds, to which the association adds $2,000. The distance will be three-quarters of a mile, and it will probably have the best field of 2-year-olds that will be seen in the West this year. Ed Corrigan, it is expected, will send his great colt, fluron, here to run for it, and also his speedy youngster, Phil Dwyer. They will meet Mr. Theodore Winters' unbeaten California filly, Yo Tambien, half sister to El Rio Rey and the Emperor of Norfolk, and unquestionably the champion 2-year-old of the Pacific Coast. Among the other good ones expected to run are Adalin, Bracelet, Boston De, The Hero, Greenwich, Hitower, Faraday, Chaperone and American Lady.

The number of favorites who have won at the St. Louis meeting thus far has been re-markable. The opening day, Saturday, four-of the six events were captured by favorites, and Monday first choice horses again won four races out of six. Yesterday, however, the favorites tied the world's record by winning the six events on the programme.

All a man had to do to pick the winners was to look at the odds laid against the horse in the books and bet his money on the horse which was graded highest. The favorites in the books had all sold favorites in the anotion pools the previous night. favorites in the books had all sold favorites in the auction pools the previous night. Three of the winners were odds on favorites, and this prevented many people from backing them. Odds could be obtained against the other three, although Comedy at 5 to 2 was the only horse in the six against whom as good odds as 2 to 1 were to be obtained. Out of the eighteen races up to date, the favorites have taken fourteen. Even at that the bookmakers have made money as the odds posted against many of the winners have been prohibitive.

The racing yesterday was the best of the meeting. Old Comedy, despite the fact that he ran like a cow Monday, was installed favorite in the first race, selling, one mile. He was a little was a different horse, however, from what he was the previous day. He was a little short of work Monday and his race that day put him on edge for a contest yesterday and he ran right away from his field, winning with ease by eight open lengths from Maggie R, who beat Kalavalis an open length for first. race for which Forerunner was a strong favorite. Had the distance been shorter she could have won anyhow. Black, her jockey, had to almost pull her neck double to hold her in for the first five furlongs of the course, as he knew that if he let her go she would pump herself out. She ran well until the stretch was reached and then she tired badly and had to be whipped severely to secure the place, for which she only beat Chimes a head. Until the stretch was reached it was a pretty race. Forerunner, the favorite, won. The time was 1:35½. Mr. Rice, owner of Chimes, is said to have lost heavily by his coit's defeat. ment of Agrbulture.

Washington, D. C., Jule 10.—The report of the statistician of the Department of Agriculture for June makes the acreage in cotton 97.7 per cent of the area of 1890 and the average condition 85.7. The reduction of the area is attributed in some districts to concerted contraction on account of low prices, but it is evident that it is mainly due to unfavorable conditions for glauting and germination. The record of planting in the May report is quite accurately a history of the nation. The record of planting in the May report is quite accurately a history of the crop to the present time.

Planting delayed by easy rains, drought in the latter half of April, followed by continued drought in May, germination arrested, replanting active, defective stands corrected are the features of the record frequently and almost universally reported. These conditions were less general and controlling in Texas than in any other Sate. The areas as compared with those of list year are given as follows: Virginia, 96; North Carolina, 94; South Carolina, 96; Mississipp, 95; Louisiana, 96; Texas, 106; Arkansas, 96; Tennessee, 98.

The general condition is the lowest for June since 1874, although it is only a fraction lower than that of 1893 and 1890, the latter a year of good yield through tavorable later conditions. The Stateaverages of condition are: Virginia, 75; North Carolina, 89; Georgia, 89; Florida, 90; Alabama, 89; Mississippi, 88; Louisiana, 89; Texas, 91; Arkansas, 89; Tennessee, 2.

The temperature of May was quite too low for cotton, the cool nightschecking germination and retarding growth. Of course these conditions make the crop late in development in some places a few days, in others a week or two later than in seasons of early development.

There is frequent mention of bad stands, or two later train in termine of bad stands, but the constant replanting will reduce the vacancies to a minimum.

Cuitivation is necessarily late and the fields grassy with the usual variation resulting from differences in soil, amount of replanting and relative promptness and efficiency of plantation managers. DO YOU WEAR CLASSES

Thomas G. Slater Arrested at the Lindel Hotel to Answer a Charge of Fraud in Louisville-Joseph Grebins' Conduct Causes an Application for a Warrant

George Slingwein, alias Clifford, was arand Flynn. Later in the day a warrant was sworn out charging him with burglary in the second degree and larceny. Slingwein possesses an artistic eye, but for revenue only. On the afternoon of May 80, while everybody was absent from the office on account of the Decoration Day demonstration, he effected an entrance into the establishment of the drawing instruments, valued at $60. truments were recovered by the dejob, but the man has not yet been apprehended. Slingwein is a notorious charac who has several times been implicated petit local-steals. He confesses his guilt.

Complaint Against the Owner of a Freak. general refreshment stand at Leonard avenue and Manchester road. He insists that several weeks ago he paid J. J. West $10, with the stipulation that West was to exhibit his two-headed, six-legged cow on the vacant lot adjoining Fletcher's stand. About ten days ago West reported to the authorities that the cow, which he valued at $2,000, had been stolen from his stable. Fletcher, however, insists that the freak is still in however, insists that the Ireak is still in West's possession and that the larcent story was started simply to enable the owners to avoid the fulfillment of several contracts similar to the one which he made. He wanted a warrant against West for obtaining money under false pretenses, but was told by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Estep that a civil suit for the recovery of the cash was his only recourseat law.

Joseph Rice was at the Four Courts this venth street. He says that yesterday afternoon he went into the entry leading to Lochner's bakery on Eleventh street, between Carr and Wash streets, when he was stracked by Lochner's dog, which tore his trousers and bit him on the left hip. Mr. Estep advised him to cause Lochner to be summoned into the Police Court for knearer. ed into the Police Court for keepin

A heartless practical joke was played on a poor unfortunate last evening. About 5:80 o'clock Charles McQuillan, 84 years old and rooming at 608 Market street, fell asieep in Tom Kelly's salcon. Fifteen minutes later he awoke to feel a stinging pain in his left hand and discovered that it was on fire. By wrapping the hand in his coat McQuillan succeeded in extinguishing the blaze, not, however, before the blaze, not, however, the blaze has a blaze had the blaze h that while he slept some heartless hound had poured on his hand a quantity of whisky and then set fire to the infiammable liquid. Shortly after 20°clock this morning McQuillan was found by Officers Heer and Madden wandering along Seventh street, near Market, in search of the Dispensary, no treatment having been given his hand. He was sent to the City Hospital. Inquiry failed to develop the identity of the wretch who had aused the old man's suffering.

Arrested for Fraud.

Accompanied by Detectives W. H. DeForester and J. T. Gorley of the Louisville (Ky.) Department, Detectives Viehle and Ziegler morning to the Lindell Hotel, in the corrido of which they arrested Thomas G. Slater. The prisoner is now in the hold-over at the Four Courts. Beaten by Her Husband.

It was a badly bruised face which Mrs. Kate Daly showed in the office of Assistant Prose cuting Attorney Estep at the Four Courts this no money to pay her rent for the little roo on Papin street and Twenty-first and her few effects were put in the street. She is now stopping with her brother at 614 Argyle ave-nue, while Daly lives at 7713 Papin street. A warrant for wife abandonment has been issued against the husband.

Said to Be a Terror

Joseph Grebin, living at 8025 North Broad way, was made defendant in an action for assault and battery to-day, his wife, Annie, assault and battery to-day, his wife, Annie, having made complaint against him at the Four Courts. Mrs. Grebin keeps a boarding-house at 8025 North Broadway. She insists that her husband is a terror in the first degree. She says that Saturday he attacked and struck her for talking to one of her boarders; that Monday he broke all of the chinaware on the dinner table; that Tuesday he drew a revolver and drove another boarder out of the house. To cap the climax she insists that this morning he entered her she insists that this morning he entered her room with drawn revolver and fired three shots into the ceiling. She says that he is jealous without cause. Divorce proceedings are now pending in the Circuit Court.

The remains of the unknown man found yesterday afternoon in the river at the foot of Dorcas street are yet in the Morgue, ex-posed for identification. The deceased was when found a black sack coat, black vest brown flannel shirt, black jeans trousers an No. 8 gatter shoes. In his pocket was found a P. & L. handle pocket-knife and small

Chief of Police Harrigan to-day received a communication from J. Binnel, 513 Reed street, Milwaukee, Wis., who desires information of the whereabouts of Charles Starr. In 1887 Starr's wife died and his three children have since been living with Binnel. Starr was at that time in the employ of the St. Louis Transfer Co. Since April, 1886, nothing has been heard of him.

Corn—This market reserved quite a dump this morning, falling light before there was any kind if reaction. Receipts were still very small. Liverpool was firm and up be and the weather conditions have been so conductive towards bringing forward the crop, reports from which were gill-edged, and there were so own buyers that it took little pressure to depress prices. Prices rallied from their early depression, affacenced by wheat and also affected by the rain has fell about 10 o'clock. The close was firm and by below yesterday.

ATTACKED BY BOUGHS.

The Painful Experience of a Dutch Noble man in New York.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Baron Henry V Aldennel and M. Ernest de la Porte were c taking in the dark side of life, and as a res Aldennel and M. Ernest de la Porte were out taking in the dark side of life, and as a result are now at their room, is Clinton place, in a seriously dilapidated condition. This condition is the result of an encounter with a gang of toughs in Egan's salcon, at the corner of Clinton and University places, about sa. m. The men became engaged in a quarrel with the bartender, who, it seems, reached over and tapped the Baron on the head, this demonstration being followed by the entire crowd of assembled toughs jumping onto the unfortunate men, who were beaten, cut and maltreated, afterwards being thrown bodily onto the sidewalk. Policeman Reidy found M, de la Porte in the gutter with an ugly cut on his head, four inches long, while the Baron sat upon the curb nursing a black eye that bulged out as though he had been hit there by a base ball thrown by a modern pitcher. The two men were taken to St. Vincent's Hospital where it was discovered that both were seriously and the Baron dangerously hurt. The men were sent home in a carriage.

Baron Von Aldennel is the scion of a noble house of Maastrecht, Holland, and has been in the country but three weeks, this being his first experience of the dark side of American life. M. De La Porte is a musician whose remittances from home come regularly.

advantages. It is feared that with the effort to form national political parties in Utah the Mormons will work under the guise of political patronage to gain Utah's admission as a State, and then they will secure absolute control of Utah politics for their own purposes. Old Dr. Hiff, a leading Mormon fighter, voted against the resolutions, which were, however, carried by a large majority. Bishop Andrews also advised the Conference not to be radical in its action.

Catholic bishops, consisting of Rishops fitz-gerald. Dwenger of Fort Wayne, McCloskey of Louisville, Rademacher of Nashville, Chatard of Vincennes, Watterson of Colum-bus, Ferry of Detroit and Mass of Covington, met with Archbishop Elder and selected three names which were last night forwarded to Rome from which the Pope will select a successor to the late Bishop Gilmour of Cleveland.

The Adams Electric Co.'s Suit Opens Day After To-Morrow.

IT MAKES THE LINDELL BAILWAY CO. THE DEFENDANTS.

istrict Court Before Judge Thayens Thomson-Houston Co. Attemp to Buy Half the Adams Stock-Ar

Electric Way.

The papers in the first suit of the Adams Electric Co. of St. Louis against the great electric railway systems of this country for infringement of patent will be filed in the United States District Court in St. Louis, through the legal firm of Campbell & Ryan, day after to-morrow, Friday, June 12. This action will open a fight from which the stockholders of the Adams Co. expect confidently to emerge victorious and which involves millions of dollars in its claim upon the companies now in the field of electric railway construction. The suit will be brought against the Lindell Ealiway Co. of this city, users of the Sprague electric system, and the Sprague Co. will therefore be the co-defendants in the suit, and the real party attacked for infringement of patent. The cause of the first suit being directed against the Sprague Co, is that their system was the first to be placed in actual use, and that therefore they were the first to infringe upon the Adams platents. The basis of the Adams claim has already been fully set forth in the Fost-Disparch, and the brief filed in the case will practically state the same facts regarding the history of electric railway patents and the priority of the Adams rights, as have already been explained through the Fost-Disparch. The claim is, briefly, for infringement upon patents issued to Dr. Wellington Adams for the first and only practicable device for attaching electric motors to car-axles, an invention which solved what had until that time proved a fatal problem in the experimental stage of electric street railway possibilities.

Sam Small $1,000 Short in His Accounts—Struggle Against Mormonism.

OGDEN, Utah, June 10.—The M. E. Conference, auditing the accounts of Sam Small in connection with the University, report him over $1,000 in arrears. The case will be left with the Georgia Conference for settlement, the Utah M. E. Conference deciding to take no action.

The committee report on "The Condition of Affairs in Utah" is not encouraging. The ministers state that Mormonism is in the valleys to stay, and is almost impregnable. Although the Mormons have declared against the practice of polygamy during the partially discontinued, and that for political patronage to gain Utah's admission as a State, and then they will secure absolute control of Utah politics for their own purposes.
